

Neil Stevenson

Neil began his professional life as a Vet Surgeon and operated a private practice in Westport for over 10 years.

A bike-accident head injury brought an extended period of rehabilitation under ACC, leading to experience of the Community Mental Health sector and activity in the voluntary community.

Neil is now heavily involved particularly with Red Cross and Presbyterian Support (Upper SI) programmes, especially for the elderly and disabled.